COMPETITIVE DANCERS (includes dancers in the Elect program):

1. Competitive dancers will not be allowed to compete if they have missed 5 regular practices during the season or miss a scheduled extra practice prior to competition (sickness is an exception). * Due to COVID-19 guidelines, students are not allowed to enter the studio if they show signs of illness.
2. Dancers in the Elect program will not be allowed to compete if they have missed 3 regular practices during the season or miss a scheduled extra practice prior to competition (sickness is an exception). * Due to COVID-19 guidelines, students are not allowed to enter the studio if they show signs of illness.
Having homework or studying are not acceptable excuses to miss class, as we expect competitive and elect dancers to manage their time efficiently. Sitting out in class due to repeated injury will be counted towards missing classes. Dancers who are repeatedly sick and injured are not good candidates for the competitive and elect dance program. Missing dance classes due to extra curricular activities is not an excusable reason. We will not count the following as an absence as long as the office is notified: sickness that is contagious or COVID-19 symptoms, attending family weddings and funerals, mandatory academic events, participating in a dance audition, dance convention, or dance performance that you auditioned for.
3. Competitive dancers who miss competitions and abuse the policies we expect competitive dancers to follow will be suspended from our Competitive Program the following year.
4. Competition fees must be paid in full by October 15th. Competition fees are non-refundable. If a competition is cancelled due to situations beyond our control, we will only issue a refund, less an administrative fee if we

- receive a refund from the competition. The competitions we will be attending will be posted on our website by July 1st. Please check the website under "Competitions" for dates and all other pertinent information.
5. All competitive dancers must take all the required classes as outlined on the website.
 6. It is the responsibility of the parent to ensure that their child comes to competitions one hour before the dancer's scheduled time with costume and hair and make-up done.
 7. Solo/Duet/Trio fees must be paid in full before the instructor will begin teaching the dance.
 8. Dancers are expected to practice their dances at home to ensure they learn and perfect the choreography, stay physically fit, and keep up with the rest of the class.
 9. Competition season runs from March 1st to mid-May and dancers need to be available for extra practices and present for the actual competitions, no exceptions. Please be responsible when planning family vacations. Dancers cannot be away the week before and during competitions.
 10. Extra practices are not voluntary, they are mandatory! If you are unable to commit to these extra practices due to illness or injury, or being away, please inform the office. Please do not sign up for competitive classes if you are not able to commit to the extra practices and extra expenses. Extra practice schedules will be emailed so please check your inbox regularly.
 11. Competitive dancers are expected to manage their time effectively with regards to schoolwork or other extracurricular activities. Please look at your schedule and sign up for dance classes accordingly. If extra-curricular activities (pom, hockey, soccer, etc.) will prevent you from attending dance class, please do not commit to this class. Also, if schoolwork is heavy, please do not sign up for more classes than you can handle.
 12. As a competitive dancer with Pure Energy Dance Co., it is not allowed nor is it appropriate to perform, take classes or be affiliated in any way with another competing Dance Studio or Dance Company.
 13. If you have concerns or questions throughout the year, please contact the office. It is inappropriate to contact our instructors via text, email, or social media; the only exception is when a teacher invites you to a dance group chat, etc.
